

WE HAVE RETURNED

Travel weary and a little rusty (we had a lot of rain) the team have returned from Rwanda. We have been welcomed, blessed, humbled, encouraged and challenged by those we have met and all we have seen.

The progress being made in Rwanda both practically and spiritually is amazing, but there is still so much to be done. The Anglican church there works tirelessly. Innovative ideas and support for young and old alike is giving hope and motivating entire communities. Inevitably however, progress is hindered through a lack of funds.

There is always a tendency for us to feel despondent when we consider our meagre funds compared to the needs of these people but, as they constantly remind us all we can do is plan, pray, do what we can and our great God will do the rest.

Now we are back we must prayerfully consider all we have learnt and how we can best use the funds available to us.

We ask that you pray for God's provision and wisdom in these decisions.

SPONSORSHIP

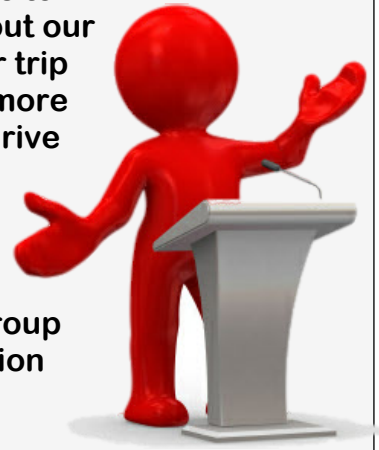

Fidele is waiting patiently

“Thank you for coming” was the constant message during our visit. Knowing they are not forgotten means more than the practical support received.

What better way to show a child they are not forgotten than by sponsoring. Enabling their education and giving them a future.
