

LOAN4HOPE SUCCESS

This month we received news from Kaleere, a small village in Rwanda, of successful ventures within our Loan4Hope project.

We were told about Agnes Nazziwa (37) for whom it has been an amazing help. She had a small retail shop where she had almost nothing to sell for lack of capital. Agnes said:

"I used the loan money to buy more maize flour, I began with 4 bags but now I bring 16 bags every week. It gives me good profit and this enables me to return the loan on time. Thank you God, my children can now go to school without any disturbance. I thank God for this Church."

LOAN4HOPE seeks to create self sufficiency,

THANK YOU

rather than dependency. Loans can be granted for purchasing livestock, seeds or tools, or can be used to start or improve a small business - as it did for Agnes. It is mentored by the local church, who provide support, training and advice where needed, and monitored by Christian Hope International.

SPONSORSHIP SPONSORSHIP SPONSORSHIP

Naome would love to find a sponsor

During our recent visit to Uganda and Rwanda we were continually thanked for visiting. As remote communities they often feel forgotten by the outside world. Reminding the children that they are valued and not forgotten is simple. For £15 a month you can sponsor a child, giving them access to education and a brighter future. With sponsorship you can make their day, and change their tomorrow.
