

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

At St Daniel's School, Kaleere your donations to the work of CHI have recently enabled education materials to be provided for 53 orphaned youngsters who would otherwise have been without basics such as pencils and paper.

When you only receive one nutritionally poor meal a day (if you're lucky) concentration, discipline and the ability to learn are all affected, It seems to us that at a cost of £5 per child, per term, school lunches for all pupils are a good investment, and so funds were also sent to provide lunches, a cup of Posho (a high protein porridge), for the pupils at St Daniels School.

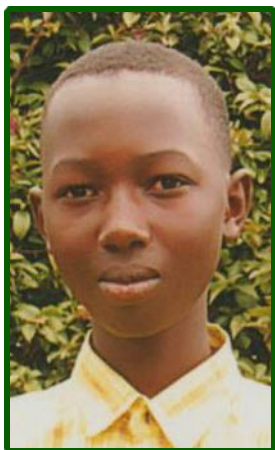

Consider how much you will spend on your Christmas meal.

Could you spare £5 to feed a child for a term?

THANK YOU

SPONSORSHIP

Meet David Imanishimwe, his father was a Pastor who died suddenly when David was very young. Sponsorship through CHI from the age of 8 has enabled him to receive an education. He is now 16 years old and studying in senior three.

It is fair to say that October has not been a good month for David. His sponsors notified us that they would be unable to continue support for him. On notifying the project we were asked to pray for him and his family as his older brother, aged 19, had died on the 12th October.

We URGENTLY need to find a new sponsor for David to ensure he is able to finish his education.

COULD YOU SPONSOR DAVID?....PLEASE

CHRISTMAS MAIL If you are a sponsor please ensure Christmas cards for your sponsored children reach the CHI office before the end of November. THANK YOU
