

AUNT LOUISE NEEDS YOU!

Anyone who has spoken to Carmen, Ian or Pauline since their return from Uganda in March will have heard about the Aunt Louise School for the Disabled. It certainly touched our hearts. Rev Canon Patrick took us up the hills to this remotely situated 'school', as he felt that CHI may be able to help them in some small way. We were overwhelmed by the passion of Pastor Edward and his wife Louise who run this school with a little family help and a lot of faith. We were shocked and amazed that they managed to care for 11 (now 13) variously disabled young people without electric, mains water and a means of transport. The students themselves were cheerful and welcoming, some of them speaking excellent English. When we visited their sleeping quarters we were very upset to see they did not all have a mattress, some using just sheets or clothing to sleep on the springs of the bunk beds. Patrick was clearly distressed that he could not help more.

We all knew instinctively that this was a job for CHI!

CHI were fortunate to come home from Uganda to a legacy gift that certainly helped a lot, an answer to prayer without a doubt - mattresses and mosquito nets were bought for all the beds, a solar powered lighting system, goats and a cow, food supplies and some educational supplies.

CHI intend to continue to support this school, and hope you will help us achieve this goal. There are 13 students who live at the school, some have parents or guardians who try to help where they can. We have added them to our sponsorship project. This helps give the school a regular monthly income. We have added photos here of the youngsters still requiring sponsorship, their full details can be found on our website.
